Attention Juniors! Before school was cancelled, we had started the gift card raffle fundraiser. We need to get tickets and money back to draw a winner. On May 5 from 11:00-5:00, you may drop off your tickets and money at the school. Please make sure to label your envelope as junior class fundraiser. If you have questions please get in contact with a junior sponsor.

Congratulations Class of 2020!

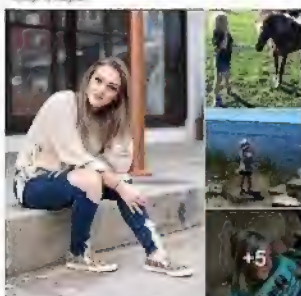

#WVHeroesOfEd in Pocahontas County delivered diplomas to their seniors this week. Seven county bus operators, Superintendent Beam, & PCHS principal, Joseph Riley drove 232 miles over 11 hours to deliver 63 diplomas to deserving seniors!

Fans of 2020

Joining Session
Mr. Riley is currently looking for applicants from current students to be the Buchanan County High School Representative to the Palmetto County Board of Education for next school year (2020-2021). To apply, send Mr. Riley your photo via an email explaining why you are interested and why the position is important to the students of Buchanan County. Applicants will be accepted until noon, May 6th.
Two representatives will be selected, one for the fall semester and one for the spring semester. This appointment will require you to attend all BOC meetings during your semester. The applicant requires you to communicate and report to the BOC the happenings of PCHS as well as answer questions pertaining to the student body.
